

CV English

Agnieszka Stępień PT, PhD

Physiotherapist. Since 1995 a lecturer at the Faculty of Rehabilitation, Józef Piłsudski University of Physical Education in Warsaw. PhD thesis in the field of spine biomechanics. Clinical experience in the treatment of children, adolescents and adults with scoliosis, neuromuscular diseases.

In the years 2017-2021, president of the Polish Physiotherapy Association. Representative of the Polish Chamber of Physiotherapists for contacts with patient organizations. Member of the Unit of the National Program of Rare Diseases at the Minister of Health (2016-2017), the Social Council of Sport at the Minister of Sport (2018-2019) and the Unit for Diagnostics and Conservative Treatment of Idiopathic Scoliosis, Polish Academy of Sciences (2016-2020). Advanced Instructor of the International Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation Association (IPNFA), member of the Research Committee. Speaker at conferences and workshops for physiotherapists and patients in Poland and abroad.